Infectious disease.

19. Every keeper of a house let in lodgings, immediately after he shall have been informed or shall have ascertained that any lodger in such house is ill of any infectious disease, shall adopt all such precautions as may be necessary to prevent the spread of such infectious disease, and shall immediately give intimation, in writing, to the town clerk of the existence of such infectious disease.

20. Such keeper shall not at any time, while such lodger is suffering from infectious disease, cause or allow any other person, except the wife or any other relative of such lodger, or except a person voluntarily in attendance on such lodger, to use or occupy the same room as such lodger.

21. Where, in consequence of the illness of such lodger, there may be reasonable grounds for apprehending the spread of infection through the admission of lodgers to any room or rooms in such house, or through the admission to such room or rooms of the maximum number of lodgers authorised to be received therein, such keeper shall, when instructed by the town clerk in writing, cease to receive any lodger in such room or rooms, or shall only receive therein such number of lodgers, being less than the maximum number, as the inspector of lodging-houses considers the exigencies of the case to require.

22. Such keeper shall, immediately after the death, removal, or recovery of any lodger who may have been ill of any infectious disease, give written notice thereof to the town clerk, and shall, as soon as conveniently may be, cause every part of the room which may have been occupied by such lodger to be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, and shall also cause every article in such room which may be liable to retain infection to be in like manner cleansed and disinfected, unless the Council shall have ordered the same to be destroyed.

23. When the same shall have been thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, he shall give written notice thereof to the town clerk; and until two days from the giving of such notice shall have elapsed, and unless and until by such cleansing and disinfection the necessary precaution for preventing the spread of disease shall have been duly taken, the keeper shall not cause or suffer any other lodger to be received into the room which, in the case hereinbefore specified, may have been exposed to infection.

Inspection.

24. It shall be the duty of the inspector of lodging-houses to see that these Regulations and other the provisions of or pursuant to "The Health Act of 1884" be duly observed and complied with.

The mayor, the inspector of lodging-houses, and also the officers of health, are hereby empowered and authorised to visit and inspect from time to time the houses let in lodgings within the municipality, provided that no visit for purposes of ordinary inspection shall be made between the hours of one o'clock and six o'clock ante-meridian, nor by such mayor or inspector to any sleeping apartment of any such house occupied by married couples or by females, unless upon information that the Regulations in respect to the separation of the sexes are being violated, and then in company with a constable or officer of the police.

HIS Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in pursuance of the provisions of the "Cemetery Act 1865," been pleased to approve of the following Rules and Regulations made by the Trustees of the Kingston General Cemetery.

HORACE TOZER.

WHEREAS by the "Cemetery Act 1865" the Trustees of any public cemetery are empowered to make Rules and Regulations for all or any of the purposes in the said Act mentioned: It is hereby resolved by the Trustees of the Kingston General Cemetery, by and with the approval of the Governor in Council, that the following Rules and Regulations shall be in force within the said cemetery from the date of the publication hereof:—

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

Meeting of trustees.

1. A meeting of trustees shall be called on the request of any two trustees or the secretary; the secretary to give seven days' notice to all the trustees, except in special or urgent cases, when a shorter notice may be given.

Election of officers.

2. At the first ordinary meeting in each year the trustees present shall elect from their number a chairman, a treasurer, and a secretary, who shall respectively hold office for twelve months from the date of election and shall be eligible for re-election.

Banking account.

3. All moneys received from any source on account of the Kingston General Cemetery shall be paid to the credit of the trustees of the said cemetery in such bank as may be approved by the said trustees.

4. All disbursements on account of the said cemetery, except those in payment of accounts under one pound, shall be passed before payment by the trustees, and shall be made by cheques signed by the treasurer and countersigned by the secretary and one trustee.

5. Cheques on account of petty cash disbursements will from time to time be handed to the treasurer, who is hereby empowered to pay therefrom such sums (not amounting in any case to the sum of one pound) as may be necessary for keeping the cemetery in proper order. The treasurer shall keep a petty cash book, in which he shall account for all sums so received and disbursed.

Hours of burial.

6. The hours within which burials may be performed shall be from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. from September to April inclusive, and from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. from May to August inclusive. On Sundays, burials may be performed from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. and from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. throughout the year. No burial will be allowed to take place at any other time, unless in cases of great urgency and upon the written authority of two trustees.

Sexton's duties.

7. The sexton will be appointed by the trustees, and shall procure two bondsmen in the sum of five pounds each as a fidelity guarantee for the fulfilment of the duties required in connection with the cemetery. The sexton shall be present at all burials, and shall render all assistance required, and no person shall be allowed to prepare a grave within the cemetery except the sexton or his assistant. It shall be the duty of the sexton to see that the gates are properly fastened; he shall not allow on any pretext whatever any grave to be disturbed or interfered with except for the satisfaction of the ends of justice, and then not without an order from the Colonial Secretary. He shall also keep the fences in repair, and furnish the secretary with monthly returns of the burials. The sexton shall have the power to refuse to break the ground for the purpose of digging a grave or erecting any vault, monument, tombstone, tablet, railing, or other erection until a receipt is produced to him signed by one or more of the trustees for the amount of the fees or charges to be paid therefor in accordance with Schedule A hereto.

8. The sexton has authority to exercise all the powers conferred by sections 26 and 39 of the "Cemetery Act 1865" in respect of any persons who shall behave indecorously or commit any trespass or injury to the trees, flowers, or erections, or otherwise infringe any of the provisions of the said Act.

Application for burials.

9. Application for permission to have a grave prepared, a vault constructed, or a monument, tombstone, tablet, or railing erected must be made to the trustees; whereupon, if approved of, a permission in the form in Schedule B hereto will be granted to the applicant on payment of the charges set forth in Schedule A hereto. Orders for interment must be given to the sexton at least seven working hours prior to the burial, otherwise an extra charge will be made in accordance with Schedule A hereto.

Depth of graves.

10. All graves made in the cemetery shall be sunk at least six feet. The undertaker or person ordering a grave shall furnish the sexton with a memorandum in the form of Schedule D hereto, together with the trustees' permission in the form of Schedule B hereto.

Brick graves or vaults.

11. Persons requiring brick graves or vaults in the cemetery will be required to submit plans of the same for the approval of the trustees, and to construct the same under the direction of the person appointed by the trustees. A plan or drawing of every monument, tombstone, tablet, or railing proposed to be erected and a copy of every epitaph or inscription to be engraven thereon must be submitted to the trustees for approval, and the trustees shall have the power to withhold their permission and prevent the erection of any monument which shall appear to them inappropriate or unbecoming. In the erection of tablets, copper cramps must be used. All monuments, graves, gravestones, railings, &c., must be kept in repair and proper condition by or at the expense of the owners.

Application for graves.

12. At the time application is made to the trustees to have a grave prepared, the name, age, late place of residence, and probable cause of death of deceased, together with the rest of the particulars to fill up the form Schedule C hereto, must be given by the person who makes such application.

Time for funerals.

13. The sexton must be informed of the time fixed for the burial, which must be understood to mean the hour at which the funeral procession is to be at the cemetery; the hours fixed in all cases must be punctually observed.

No gratuities for sexton.

14. The sexton or other person employed by the trustees is not allowed to receive any gratuity for the performance of his duties except special permission is granted.

Plan and register of cemetery.

15. A plan of the cemetery, a register of all special grants, and of the position of all graves in the cemetery is to be kept by the trustees, and is to be open for the inspection of parties interested upon payment of the charges mentioned in Schedule A hereto.

Urgent burials.

16. No burial will be allowed to take place, except under circumstances of a most urgent nature, without a certificate of the registration of the deceased's death signed by the district registrar, or the certificate of the magistrate or justice holding any inquiry or inquest; such certificate must be delivered to the sexton before the funeral enters the cemetery.

Burial of poor or destitute persons.

17. All cemetery charges will be remitted in respect of burial of any poor person: Provided, however, that burials ordered by the divisional board or a Government or hospital contractor shall be charged for in accordance with the rates prescribed by Schedule A hereto.

Size of allotment and time for re-opening graves.

18. Not more than two bodies of adults shall be interred in one grave; one grave only will be allowed on a 9 by 5 allotment (unselected) opened ten inches from the boundary; an adjoining allotment will be reserved in all cases for six months. BEACONS ERECTED, WHANGATEAU HARBOUR.

Marine Department,
Wellington, N.Z., 29th January, 1894.

CAPTAIN FAIRCHILD, of the Government steamer "Hinc-moa," reports that he has erected an iron beacon, painted red, on a rock on the east side of Whangateau Harbour, Omaha Bay, which dries 2 feet at low water. He has also erected two small wooden leading beacons, painted white, half-a-mile inside the entrance. These white beacons in line lead in about 100 feet to the west of the iron beacon, and as soon as the iron beacon is passed the white beacons must be opened to the east, to clear a sandspit just inside the entrance.

[No. 41.

Department of Public Lands,
Brisbane, 20th February, 1894.

PAYMENTS UNDER "THE CROWN LANDS ALIENATION ACT OF 1876," AND "THE CROWN LANDS ACTS 1884 TO 1892."

THE accompanying Schedules of the Payments due on the 31st March, upon Selections under the above-mentioned Acts, are published for general information; and it is hereby notified that the payment of rent on any Selection included in these Schedules or otherwise will not place the Selector in a better position to claim a title in the event of it coming within the knowledge of the Government that any other provisoes or conditions of the Act, or of the leases under which the lands are held, have been violated.

Failure to pay the amount due on or before the 31st March will render the Selector under the Act of 1876 liable to a penalty of 10 per cent. If rent and penalty are not paid within ninety days of the day upon which rent shall have fallen due the Selection becomes forfeited.

In the case of Agricultural (Conditional and Unconditional) and Grazing Farms held under the Act of 1884, if default is made by the Lessee in the payment of rent the lease shall be forfeited, but the Lessee may defeat the forfeiture by payment of the full annual rent within ninety days from the 31st March with the addition of a sum by way of penalty, calculated as follows, that is to say—if the rent is paid within thirty days five per centum is to be added, if the rent is paid within sixty days ten per centum is to be added, and if the rent is paid after sixty days fifteen per centum is to be added; but unless the whole of the rent together with such penalty is paid within ninety days from the appointed day the lease shall be absolutely forfeited.

CROWN LANDS ACTS 1884 TO 1892.

NOTE.—In cases marked thus * the Farms have been taken up under the "homestead" clauses.

In cases marked thus † the amount of rent due has been reduced in consequence of there being a credit in favour of the Selector on account of excess on previous payments.

In cases marked thus ‡ the portions are old surveys under previous Acts.

The portion numbers unaccompanied by any mark are of surveys under Acts 1884 to 1892 and are to be read as 1v, 2v, 3v, &c., as the case may be.

In cases marked thus § rent has been inserted, but will not be accepted unless the licenses have been maintained in operation by application for certificates of fulfilment of conditions prior to the expiration of the term.

In cases where no date appears in the column headed "Commencement of Term" licenses have not issued.

HUGH M. NELSON.

Circular.]

Downing street, 30th November, 1893.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you, for publication in the Colony under your Government, a copy of a Treaty of Commerce between Great Britain and Servia, signed at Belgrade on the 28th of June (10th of July), 1893, the ratifications of which were exchanged at Belgrade on the 4th (16th) of October last.

I have to call your attention to Article VI. of the Treaty, from which you will observe that, if it is desired that the Colony under your Government should come within the operation of the Treaty, notice to that effect must be given to the Servian Minister for Foreign Affairs within two years from the 28th of June (10th of July), 1893, the date of the signature of the Treaty.

I have therefore to request that you will be good enough to acquaint me as soon as possible of the wishes of your Government in the matter.

I have, &c.,

RIPON.

TREATY OF COMMERCE BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND SERVIA.

Signed at Belgrade, 28th June (10th July), 1893.—Ratifications exchanged at Belgrade, 4th (16th) October, 1893.

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, and His Majesty the King of Servia, being equally animated with the desire of consolidating their ties of friendship and of developing the commercial relations between the two States, have with this object determined to conclude a Treaty, and have named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Empress of India, Edmund Douglas Veitch Fane, Esquire, her Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of Servia;

And His Majesty the King of Servia, His Excellency M. André Nikolitch, his Minister for Foreign Affairs;

Who, after having communicated to each other their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

There shall be full and entire freedom of commerce and navigation between the countries of the High Contracting Parties.

The subjects, vessels, and goods, produce of the soil and industry of each of the High Contracting Parties, shall enjoy in the dominions of the other all rights, privileges, immunities, or advantages whatever which are actually enjoyed, or may hereafter be enjoyed, in the said dominions by the subjects, vessels, and goods, produce of the soil and industry of the most favoured nation.

ARTICLE II.

All articles produce of the soil or industry of Great Britain and Ireland which shall be imported into Servia, and all articles produce of the soil or industry of Servia which shall be imported into Great Britain and Ireland, whether destined for consumption, warehousing, re-exportation, or transit, shall be subjected as long as this Treaty holds good to the same treatment as and, especially, shall be liable to no higher or other duties than the produce or goods of the most favoured nation.

SA Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, Impératrice des Indes, et Sa Majesté le Roi de Serbie, également animés du désir de consolider leurs liens d'amitié et de développer les rapports commerciaux entre les deux États, ont résolu de conclure à cet effet un Traité, et ont nommé pour leurs Plénipotentiaires, savoir:

Sa Majesté la Reine du Royaume-Uni de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, Impératrice des Indes, M. Edmund Douglas Veitch Fane, son Envoyé Extraordinaire et Ministre Plénipotentiaire près Sa Majesté le Roi de Serbie;

Sa Majesté le Roi de Serbie, son Excellence M. André Nikolitch, son Ministre des Affaires Étrangères;

Lesquels, après s'être communiqué leurs pleins pouvoirs, trouvés en bonne et due forme, sont convenus des Articles suivants:—

ARTICLE I.

Il y aura pleine et entière liberté de commerce et de navigation entre les pays des Hautes Parties Contractantes.

Les sujets, les navires, et les marchandises, produits du sol et de l'industrie de chacune des Hautes Parties Contractantes, jouiront dans les territoires de l'autre de tous les droits, privilèges, immunités, ou avantages quelconques dont jouissent actuellement ou jouiront à l'avenir, dans ces territoires, les sujets, les navires, et les marchandises, produits du sol et de l'industrie de la nation la plus favorisée.

ARTICLE II.

Tous les objets, produits du sol ou de l'industrie de la Grande-Bretagne et d'Irlande, qui seront importés en Serbie, et tous les objets produits du sol ou de l'industrie de la Serbie qui seront importés dans la Grande-Bretagne et l'Irlande, destinés soit à la consommation, soit à l'emmagasinage, soit à la réexportation, soit au transit, seront soumis pendant la durée de ce Traité, au même traitement et, notamment, ne seront passibles de droits ni plus élevés ni autres que les produits ou les marchandises de la nation la plus favorisée.

No higher or other duties shall be levied in Great Britain and Ireland on the exportation of goods to Servia, or in Servia on the exportation of goods to Great Britain and Ireland, than may be levied on the exportation of the like goods to the country the most favoured in this respect.

Each of the High Contracting Parties therefore undertakes that the other shall enjoy immediately and unconditionally every favour, privilege, or reduction of duties which has been already granted, or may be granted hereafter, in the above-named respects to a third Power.

Goods of all kinds coming from or proceeding to the territory of one of the High Contracting Parties shall be exempted in the territory of the other from all transit dues. Most-favoured-nation treatment is mutually guaranteed to each of the High Contracting Parties in all that concerns transit.

It is understood that the provisions of the present Article do not apply to such special facilities and privileges as have been or may hereafter be conceded by Servia to the neighbouring States with respect to the local traffic between their continuous frontier districts.

ARTICLE III.

It is agreed that, as regards cost of transport and all other facilities, Servian goods transported over British railways and British goods transported over Servian railways shall be treated in exactly the same manner as the goods of the nation the most favoured in this respect.

ARTICLE IV.

The subjects of each of the two High Contracting Parties shall be exempted in the territory of the other from all military service and from all extraordinary requisitions which may be established on account of exceptional circumstances.

The liabilities, however, arising out of the possession of landed property, and for military loans and requisitions to which all the subjects of the State may be called upon to contribute as proprietors, or tenants, of real property, shall be excepted.

ARTICLE V.

The subjects of the two High Contracting Parties shall in the dominions of the other enjoy the same protection and be subject to the same conditions as native subjects, or subjects of the most favoured nation, in regard to the right of property in trade marks, names of firms, and other distinctive marks showing the origin or quality of goods, as well as in patterns and designs for manufacture.

ARTICLE VI.

The present Treaty shall be applicable, as far as the laws permit, to all the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, excepting to those hereinafter named, that is to say, except to—

India.
The Dominion of Canada.
Newfoundland.
New South Wales.
Victoria.
South Australia.
Western Australia.
Queensland.
Tasmania.
New Zealand.
The Cape of Good Hope.
Natal.

Provided always that the present Treaty shall be made applicable to any of the abovenamed Colonies or foreign possessions on whose behalf notice to that effect shall have been given by Her Britannic Majesty's Representative at Belgrade to the Minister for Foreign Affairs of His Majesty the King of Servia within two years from the date of the signature of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE VII.

The present Treaty shall be ratified and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Belgrade as soon as the formalities prescribed by the Constitutional Laws of the Contracting States have been observed.

It shall remain in force from the date of the exchange of the ratifications until the 31st (19th) December, 1903. In case neither of the two High Contracting Parties should have notified twelve months before the end of the said period the intention of putting an end to it, it shall remain binding until the expiration of one year from the day on which either of the High Contracting Parties shall have denounced it.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Treaty, and have thereto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate at Belgrade the tenth day of July (the twenty-eighth day of June), one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

AND. NIKOLITCH.

A l'exportation pour la Serbie il ne sera perçu en Grande-Bretagne et en Irlande et à l'exportation pour la Grande-Bretagne et l'Irlande, il ne sera perçu en Serbie d'autres ni plus élevés droits de sortie qu'à l'exportation des mêmes objets pour le pays le plus favorisé à cet égard.

Chacune des Hautes Parties Contractantes s'engage donc à faire profiter l'autre immédiatement et sans condition de toute faveur, de tout privilège ou abaissement de droits qu'elle a déjà accordés ou pourrait accorder par la suite, sous les rapports susmentionnés, à une tierce puissance.

Les marchandises de toute nature provenant du territoire de l'une des Hautes Parties Contractantes ou y allant, seront exemptes, dans les territoires de l'autre, de tous droits de transit. Le traitement de la nation la plus favorisée est réciproquement garanti à chacune des Parties Contractantes pour tout ce qui concerne le transit.

Il est entendu que les dispositions du présent Article ne s'appliquent point aux facilités et privilèges spéciaux, qui ont été ou qui pourront être accordés par la Serbie aux Etats voisins, par rapport au trafic local entre leurs districts frontières limitrophes.

ARTICLE III.

Il est convenu que, en ce qui regarde les frais de transport et toute autre facilité, les marchandises Serbes transportées sur les chemins de fer Britanniques et les marchandises Britanniques transportées sur les chemins de fer Serbes, seront traitées exactement de la même manière que les marchandises de toute autre nation la plus favorisée sous le dit rapport.

ARTICLE IV.

Les ressortissants de chacune des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes seront exemptes, dans le territoire de l'autre, de tout service militaire et de toutes réquisitions extraordinaires qui seraient établies par suite de circonstances exceptionnelles.

Sont toutefois exceptées les charges qui sont attachées à la possession d'un bien fonds, ainsi que les prestations et réquisitions militaires auxquelles les nationaux peuvent être appelés à se soumettre, comme propriétaires, fermiers, ou locataires d'immeubles.

ARTICLE V.

Les sujets de chacune des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes jouiront dans les Etats de l'autre de la même protection et seront assujettis aux mêmes obligations que les nationaux ou les sujets de la nation la plus favorisée, pour tout ce qui concerne la propriété soit des marques de fabrique et de commerce, des noms commerciaux ou d'autres marques particulières indiquant l'origine ou la qualité des marchandises, soit des modèles et dessins industriels.

ARTICLE VI.

Le présent Traité s'appliquera, en tant que les lois le permettent, à toutes les Colonies et possessions étrangères de Sa Majesté Britannique, à l'exception de celles ci-après dénommées, à savoir—

Les Indes.
Le Canada.
Terre-Neuve.
La Nouvelle-Galles du Sud.
Victoria.
L'Australie du Sud.
L'Australie Occidentale.
Queensland.
La Tasmanie.
La Nouvelle-Zélande.
Le Cap.
Natal.

Le présent Traité deviendra applicable à l'une des Colonies ou des possessions étrangères susmentionnées si, en leur nom, notification à cet égard est faite par le Représentant de Sa Majesté Britannique à Belgrade au Ministre des Affaires Etrangères de Sa Majesté le Roi de Serbie, dans l'intervalle de deux ans à partir de la signature du présent Traité.

ARTICLE VII.

Le présent Traité sera ratifié, et les ratifications en seront échangées à Belgrade, aussitôt après l'accomplissement des formalités prescrites par les Lois Constitutionnelles des Etats Contractantes.

Il sera exécutoire à partir du jour de l'échange des ratifications jusqu'au 31 (19) Décembre, 1903. Dans le cas où aucune des deux Hautes Parties Contractantes n'aurait notifié, douze mois avant la fin de la dite période, son intention d'en faire cesser les effets, il demeurera obligatoire jusqu'à l'expiration d'une année, à partir du jour où l'une ou l'autre des Hautes Parties Contractantes l'aura dénoncé.

En foi de quoi les Plenipotentiaries respectifs ont signé le présent Traité et y ont apposé leurs cachets.

Fait à Belgrade, en double original, le 10 Juillet (28 Juin), 1893.

REMARKS.

Mean pressure was 0·083 lower, and mean temperature was the same as December. The mean vapour tension was 0·105 higher, and the relative humidity 11% more, than last month. Thunderstorms experienced between 0·15 p.m. and 2 p.m., 3rd; from 8 p.m. till 9 p.m., 6th; at noon, and again at 6·20 p.m., 12th.

* NOTE.—The average death-rate of children under one year, as compared to births, during the ten years ended 31st December, 1892, throughout the whole of Queensland, was 12·15. Vide Vital Statistics of 1892.

January, 1894, compared with January, 1893.

Mean pressure was 0·043 more than for the same period a year ago. The mean shade temperature was 1·0 higher than last year. The mean vapour tension or absolute weight of vapour was 0·019 more than, and the percentage of humidity was the same as, twelve months ago. The mean wind velocity was 0·6 more than in January, 1893; while the amount of cloud was 0·6 more. Examining the winds, we find that during January, 1894, northerly and north-east winds were observed 9 and 2 times, as against 11 and 3 times for the previous year. Easterly winds were observed 29 times in January, 1894, and 14 during January, 1893; and the south-east winds were 32 and 17 respectively. The southerly winds were 12 this year, against 25 a year ago. South-west currents were noted 1 and 2 this and last year respectively. Westerly winds were 1 and 4 this and last year respectively, and the north-west winds were 0 this year and 2 a year ago. The amount of calms observed was 7 this year, as against 15 twelve months ago. As for rainfall, we had 10·212 inches in January, 1894, against 9·467 inches in January, 1893.

The Observatory, which was reorganised on 1st January, 1887, is conducted entirely in accordance with the Royal Meteorological Society's Rules.

Queensland Government Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

VOL. LXI.]

SATURDAY, 3RD MARCH, 1894.

[No. 50.]

QUEENSLAND LAND FORCES.

HEAD-QUARTERS' GENERAL ORDERS.

By Major-General J. F. OWEN, R.A., Commandant.

Brisbane, 3rd March, 1894.

No. 33.

CAMPS.

THE Officer Commanding "A" Battery will detail a detachment, consisting of 1 officer and 20 non-commissioned officers and men, to proceed to Lytton on Thursday, 8th March, to assist in preparing Camp.

The detachment will remain at Lytton until after the Encampment.

The steam launch "Miner" will convey the detachment to Lytton, leaving the wharf at 8 a.m.

The Comptroller of Stores will issue and forward with it the necessary equipment for the detachment.

No. 34.

1. In order that early preparations may be made for the forthcoming Voluntary Encampment (18th to 26th March) at Lytton, it is notified, for general information, as under:—

Special attention is directed to G.S.O., Appendix XIII., Instructions for Encampments. Officers and non-commissioned officers should immediately study the orders laid down therein.

Transport.

2. The rail and other arrangements for the transport to and from the Camps of the several Corps will shortly be published in the form of tables.

Baggage regulations.

3. (a.) Officers Commanding Corps must provide a sufficient number of sacks to carry the men's baggage, and a baggage guard, under a non-commissioned officer, must be placed in charge of the same during transit to and from Camp.

For transport to Lytton the baggage of Corps stationed at Brisbane will be deposited in their respective drill-sheds, and at Ipswich in the old drill-shed, ready for loading up on the morning of the day Corps proceed to Camp:

Brisbane, by 8 a.m. on the 18th, and by noon on the 20th and 22nd March;

Ipswich, by 8 a.m. on the 18th, and by noon on the 20th and 22nd March.

At other stations, Commanding Officers will make their own arrangements. The exact details of the transport of baggage are given in table below.

The Brigade Major will make all necessary arrangements for the transport of baggage to and from all drill-sheds, railway stations, steamers, and wharves in the Brisbane District, both going to and from Lytton, and detail officers to superintend loading and unloading of same.

Carts should be in attendance at the drill-sheds at least one hour before the appointed hour on day of departure of the regiment or corps, and at railway stations at least a quarter of an hour before the hour of arrival of trains. Hours of departure will be notified hereafter.

No claim will be entertained for the transport of officers' luggage except from drill-sheds as published. For return from Lytton, instructions as to the baggage will be issued to Corps later on.

Messes.

4 Officers' and Non-commissioned Officers' Messes will be established as under:—

Head-Quarters' Mess—Head-Quarters' Staff.

(1) Artillery—Field and Garrison, Mounted Infantry, Engineers, Medical Staff, and Departmental; and

(2) Infantry—Moreton Regiment, Wide Bay and Burnett Regiment, and Cadet Corps.

5. Sergeants' Messes—

(1) Field Artillery and Mounted Infantry;

(2) Garrison Artillery, Engineers, and Ambulance Corps, Permanent Staff, and Departmental; and

(3) Infantry and Head-Quarters' Band.

Commanding officers will at once arrange for the appointment of committees to organise and establish the above messes.

Canteens.

6. One general Canteen will be established in Camp, under the general direction of an officer to be appointed for the purpose.

Mess committees of officers' and sergeants' messes should prepare, as soon as possible, lists of the articles they would wish kept in the Canteen for their use, with quantities of the same.

These lists to be forwarded to Officer Commanding "A" Battery, Victoria Barracks.

Press.

7. Should any Press correspondents desire to remain in Camp they are requested to obtain permission, in writing, from the Chief Secretary, and to notify the Brigade Major accordingly. Room will be reserved for one as an honorary member in the Head-quarters' mess, and no doubt others can arrange with the officers of other messes. They will be provided with tents in the same proportion as Company Officers, viz., one tent to every three.

Staff and Distribution.

8. The Camp will be laid out by the Acting Engineer Staff Officer. Major J. S. Lyster, Brigade Major, will superintend the supply and transport arrangements, with the assistance of officers to be hereafter named. Details of the distribution of troops in Camp will be published later on.

Dress.

9. As to dress, full-dress tunics will in no instance be worn during the Camp. Commanding Officers should immediately cause all ranks under their command to be informed.

Men's kit.

As to kit, &c., Commanding Officers must take care that all those under their command are well acquainted with the fact that each man coming to Camp is to provide himself with the following articles:—Blanket, knife, fork, spoon, pannikin, tin plate, extra pair of trousers, extra shirt, extra pair of socks, extra pair of boots, pocket-knife, towel, overcoat (optional), comb, clothes-brush, needle and thread, and a few buttons. The whole to be neatly rolled up and addressed with name and number of Company, and packed in sack provided for the purpose. It is most important that each man should have at least one complete change of clothing with him, including boots. Officers commanding Corps will impress on those under their command the necessity of having stout and serviceable boots, without which discomfort is likely to be felt.

Pay and allowances.

10. Pay, up to six whole days (Vide G.O. No. 9, 1894), will be issued in Camp to officers and men on the last day of the Encampment. Camp Pay Sheets should be made up daily, and will be checked from day to day in Camp by the Paymaster's Department. No mess or other allowances will be authorised.

Duties and training in camp.

Duties in Camp, and details of training which will be carried out, will be published later on in a separate Order.

3. Every petition or memorial shall be presented by a member of the Board, who shall be responsible for its being written in respectful language, and who shall, so far as possible, make himself acquainted with the subject thereof before presenting the same.

4. Other than the passing of accounts and the consideration of matters on the paper, no business shall be entered upon unless seven days' notice of the intention to bring on such business shall have been previously given to the clerk.

SATURDAY, 17TH MARCH, 1894.

[No. 58.]

Chief Secretary's Office, Brisbane, 14th March, 1894.

HIS Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct the publication, for general information, of the following Despatch and Enclosure received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

HUGH M. NELSON.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES to THE GOVERNOR OF QUEENSLAND.

Downing street, 16th January, 1894.

SIR,—I have the honour to transmit to you, for the information of the Colony under your Government, a translation of a Spanish Royal Decree respecting the treatment to be accorded to British Commerce from the 1st instant.

I have, &c., RIPON.

THE Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Madrid the following translation, in précis, of a Royal Decree respecting the trade of Great Britain with Spain:—

Extract from the "Madrid Gazette" of 1st January, 1894.

PRESIDENCY OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS.

Translation in précis.]

Preamble.

In view of the fact that the Conventions concluded with Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, and Holland come into operation on the 1st January, while the Commercial Treaties with Germany, Austria, and Italy, the Conventions with Great Britain and Denmark, and the Provisional Agreement concluded with France are awaiting ratification, it becomes necessary to adopt certain measures for establishing a legitimate reciprocity until the Cortes shall have met, discussed the Conventions, and submitted their suggestions for Royal sanction. These measures should not differ from those adopted in the case of nations with whom we have recently concluded Treaties, and those which, in virtue of past Agreements, are entitled to most-favoured-nation treatment, in view of the Conventions coming into force on the 1st January.

With regard to those nations which have not yet concluded new Commercial Agreements, and those coming under the Second Column of the Tariff in virtue of the Royal Order of the 29th June, 1892, it is impossible to introduce any change until a more satisfactory arrangement is arrived at.

Madrid, 31st December, 1893.

(Signed) PRAXIDES MATEO SAGASTA.

Royal Decree.

In the name of my august son, King Alphonso XIII., and as Queen-Regent of the Realm, at the instigation of the Council of Ministers,

I hereby decree as follows:—

Article 1.—From the 1st January next, and pending the deliberations of the Cortes on the Project of Law to be immediately laid before them, the most reduced ("mas reducidos") Tariff and further advantages resulting from the Commercial Conventions with Sweden, Norway, Switzerland, and Holland shall be applied to the products of the soil and industries of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Denmark, France, Great Britain and her Colonies, and Italy, subject to the same conditions as those under which those benefits are conceded.

Article 2.—Similar rights and immunities shall be applied to those nations possessing the most-favoured-nation clause in Treaties of Commerce, Peace, or Friendship, which have not been named.

Article 3.—The duties of the Second Column of the Tariff shall continue to be levied in the form now applying to the products of the soil and industries of all other nations entitled to this advantage, in virtue of the Royal Order of the 29th June, 1892.

Article 4.—The Government shall notify the provisions of this Decree to the Cortes.

Given at the Palace the 31st December, 1893.

(Signed) MARIA CHRISTINA.

The President of the Council of Ministers,
